Their Love Rekindled (Beach Haven Book 3) A.J. Goode
Everyone in Beach Haven thought Aaron and Cassie were the perfect couple. Right up until the day Cassie eloped with Aaron's best friend, that is.

Now, ten years later, Cassie has been widowed and Aaron is asked to come home and speak at a memorial in her late husband's honor. He's got to find a way past his anger and hurt to forgive his old friend and his former lover, but he doesn't expect to find that his feelings for Cassie are stronger than ever.

Cassie never expected to see Aaron again, especially since he's made a life for himself in Texas all these years. She's got no choice but to keep her distance from him because she knows he'll never be able to forgive her if he ever finds out the truth she's been hiding from him. But how can she keep her distance when just seeing him brings back all of the old memories of what they once shared?
