Pioneers of Zionism: Hess, Pinsker, Rülf (Europaisch-Judische Studien Kontroversen) Julius H. Schoeps

Long before Theodor Herzl, Zionist thinkers such as Moses Hess, Leon Pinsker, and Isaac Rulf called for the self-liberation of the Jewish people. Their experiences brought them to believe that as a result of overt antisemitism, the emancipation and integration of Jews in Europe had failed. In this climate, these thinkers began to think in national and territorial terms. Julius H. Schoeps shows how Hess, Pinsker, and Rulf influenced Zionist ideology and how the messianic implications of their thinking are still visible in Israel today."
