Where You End

Anna Pellicioli

Where You End Anna Pellicioli

Miriam Feldman was attracted to the artists, the musicians, the boys who wore broken-down cardigans. Boys like Elliot.

Their relationship was intense, passionate, all consuming. When they were together, Miriam knew who she was, in the way you can only know when you're deeply in love.

Now that it's over, Miriam has to pick up the pieces.

Even when Elliot starts seeing someone else. Even when she impulsively knocks over a priceless work of art. Even when she's blackmailed by the mystery girl who saw her do it.

Without a map, Miriam has to find her way. If only she knew how.

Praise:
“The language is evocative and atmospheric.”?Kirkus Reviews

"This is a well-crafted debut that speaks to the agony of love gone wrong, making Pellicioli an author to watch."?Booklist
