In order to understand "Heart of a Roman," we must first understand Rome. Over two thousand years ago, the Romans conquered lands on both sides of the Mediterranean Sea, establishing and maintaining one of the world's largest empires, from the Middle East to North Africa to Northern Europe. Their bravery, courage determination, aggressive nature, intelligence, and leadership abilities displayed the true "Heart of a Roman. " This book is based on true stories from the streets of Baton Rouge, Louisiana. It describes the urban nightmare of young lives at risks, and modern day warriors fighting each other for a sense of self-worth and for survival in the brutal, underground world.
