Alcohol and drug impairment are tested with roadside medical tests by law enforcement and not by physicians. These Field Sobriety Tests (FST) are NOT specific for alcohol or drugs. This CITATIONS ONLY book presents a sample of hundreds of medical problems which can cause failure of FST. This book is meant to show references of pathology that undermine your ability to pass a FST. If you fail the test due to hundreds of possible medical problems, you will be handcuffed and go to jail. If you have bail you may be out in 24 hours or less. This book is possibly the largest list of medical troubles causing FST failure.
