51 Shades of Chiffon: The Continuing Memoirs of Danielle Grace (The Memoirs of Danielle Grace) (Volume 2) Danielle Grace
The second in a frequently humorous wholly factual and 100% fictionalized erotic personalized accounting (not pornographic) of the trials and tribulations (and rewards) of a middle aged man in a sissified lifestyle. The protagonists are his wife and himself, she the head of a burgeoning fashion empire; he the dutiful husband who is sort of into, sort of forced into being her feminized husband. There is a strong marriage relationship, a plethora of willing assistants willing to make sure he toes his wife's line, and a great deal of plot twists, including dynasties of old world women who have been feminizing and thereby controlling their mates for centuries to the dynasty's good. There are Gypsies, potential scandals, political intrigue, and while the wife is disabled, she still rules the roost with an iron, ah, palm and paddle. Definitely not for every taste, but if you are in the lifestyle, it is rollicking good read.
