Is there more to life?

Have you ever felt like there should be more to life than paying bills or acquiring things? Have you mastered the art of your profession, but feel like something is missing? Do you want to be more than great?

The author's shared vulnerability and insights will engross you and catapult you to new heights. Connecting with the divine, through a four-step process, will invigorate your desire to be and receive more. Remember: our purpose is to be perfect, righteous, and holy—to become one with our Father in Heaven.

Two sides of the spectrum

Coming to know God can feel painful. When you feel that pain, you may have asked, "why me, Oh God?" Or even, "will this ever pass?" Then again you may be on the other side of the spectrum. You may have mastered universal laws and know how to build or acquire skyscrapers, yet you still feel empty, like something is amiss.

This book is for the pure in heart that are seeking to know their Father in Heaven. Kent shares real life experiences, including being diagnosed with mental illness, in his journey to be one with God. A lot of personal development book discuss growing and becoming successful, this book addresses the deeper and weightier matters of life. It explores our long established relationship with the Divine and our purpose on this planet.
