As step-siblings, Nathan Willoughby and Shannon Michaels realized that they had more than just kinship ties, but they never had a chance to explore their attraction for one another. And they were sure that they never would until they reunited by chance years later. Nathan is now a successful billionaire, but he had been looking to replace the void in his life since he lost Shannon. He’s overjoyed that he has a chance with her again, but Shannon is scared. All she can think about is how she is putting herself at risk of being hurt again. Nevertheless, she soon realizes that all Nathan wants to do is make sure he never loses out on the love of his life again. What will happen when they both finally let their guard down and follow their desires?
