Her crimes didn’t rank as felonies. A mishap on the middle school basketball court. A prank. And a food fight. Instead Coach suspends Teegan from the team and challenges her to volunteer at a soup kitchen where mystery shrouds more than the meat. The nameless faces at the soup kitchen force Teegan to confront hunger in the most unlikely of places—her own neighborhood and the basketball court. She meets a lonely old soldier with a traumatic past and discovers her teammate is hiding an awful secret. Will Teegan help her rival even if it means losing the season’s final game?
