Lovely Bailey Bennett has been a popular and well-liked cocktail waitress for ten years. She works at the friendly, but rowdy neighborhood pub, Crazy Horse, in beautiful McBride, British Columbia.
Bailey's regulars are under the impression that she is happily married. However, Bailey only a year ago escaped an abusive relationship and is actually single, although leery of starting a new relationship. She wants the impossible, an exciting bad boy, but one who is truly a nice guy underneath. She often fantasizes that one of her regulars, handsome Devon Cartwright, with his sexy English accent and beautiful sparkling eyes, could be just that sort of man. The problem is that he seems to show very little interest in her.
Just as she is resigning herself to only fantasizing about him, she makes a rash decision that brings him into her life in a way that she never could have expected.
After Halloween night, she will never be the same again. Her instincts have been dead on, Devon is a nice bad boy, but now he sees that Bailey can be an awfully naughty nice girl. Good thing that he knows just how to take care of that.
