Five-Sided Heart Max Macgowan

Noah Trevelyan has lost his moorings. Disowned over his sexuality as a teenager, he hasn t been back to his home on the Outer Banks since his fisherman father kicked him out. But when he returns for the Old Man s funeral, he discovers his father left him the house and boat in his will. Noah must choose whether to stay or go, but he won t be alone. There s Ian, working to overcome the emotional scars left by a domineering ex-boyfriend, and Ty, a cheerful housekeeper who s struggling to take care of his Alzheimer s-stricken aunt. There s Joshua too, running from the destruction of his old life, and Gabriel, who was once beaten and left for dead, and doesn t know how to survive on his own.

Will they find in each other the strength and courage to keep living and learn, together, how to love again? A polyamorous relationship is the last thing any of them expected to find in the Outer Banks, but it might be what they need most, and it might even be their redemption if they can keep their group from breaking apart under the pressure."
