...Because I Cannot Love: Poems about Denied Feelings Daniel Marques
This book has a collection of translated poems depicting denied love. It depicts a critical attitude to the way love tends to be expressed and felt, as well as the reasons and grounds for its analysis. The poems were written in the order that they are presented, allowing to see a cycle of interrelated dynamics in which the author is sometimes one of the characters and, in others, an observer. Within a posture of humility and simplicity, the poems reflect various perspectives, namely, the darkest stages of a romance. It’s another poetic work in response to the success of other writings by the same author.
