Why Keep Hiding Christ?: The Mind Needs The Heart's Guidance Michael Angelo

This book is not a simple read, I advise you to put yourself in the position as if you were looking within, seeing if you still have some of these challenges. It’s about being honest with who we are, It's not about feeling ashamed; it's about really reflecting as you read. If you are reading this book, it's because a part of you is still seeking Christ, trust that this is a very beautiful thing.

Four years of being homeless allowed me to rediscover my personal power. My experiences allowed me to have a closer relationship with GOD, which inspired me to write many books. I spent a couple of years focusing on how to find inner peace. It's amazing how we force Christ out of us just to fit in.

In the beginning I didn’t know what I was getting into or how far I would go to achieve self-discovery, I eventually realized that I was simply searching for Christ. When I became saved, I started to notice how some people still feel like they are not free, and that they are waiting for a savior to save them from the world or their own inner suffering.

This book describes my core beliefs and how I am experiencing Christ in my being, I strictly follow my beliefs, the words in this book keep me feeling happy, calm, safe and secure in this world, no matter my circumstances. I hope my experiences help you find your own truth within you.
