The Warrior and The Queen Anjli Garg, Viviane Casimir Ph.D.
Lara and Jasmine are two modern professional women who, like most of us, are fully immersed in their three-dimensional reality. Although the two never cross paths, both are pursuing their passions in the vibrant Petri dish of New York City. When they least expect it, their very way of life is challenged and their foundations shaken to the core. Metaphysical events in their lives cause them to question their entire world-view and sense of identity. They are confronted with forces and past lives that they have no choice but to examine. In the process, they discover hidden depths unknown to them. Lara and Jasmine will never be the same again. They invite you to join them on their journey of self-discovery, as they navigate a web of royal plots and deadly battles, spanning ancient India and the medieval Europe of the Knights Templar. Although based upon a kernel of truth, their stories are nevertheless a work of fiction. As the reader, you are transported through time and space, and weave through a mosaic of colorful cultures, culinary delights, and webs of intrigue. Their stories will please all six of your senses, as you experience the vibrancy of Lara and Jasmine's incarnations. Their tales open a window to a metaphysical and spiritual journey that is sure to empower you, as you welcome the challenge. Their stories are presented as is, with no attempt to assert or validate the accuracy of historical events and no espousal of any particular religious beliefs. Lara and Jasmine simply want to share the unfolding effects of their metaphysical experiences with the world. The Warrior and the Queen, at heart, is an inspirational novel that offers something for every reader. It is as much literary as it is entertaining. It poetically engages the reader in his or her own exploration of what may lie beyond the three-dimensional reality of our five senses. The reader is not alone in that journey – Lara and Jasmine have the same doubts and unanswered questions in their lives. Theirs is a tale where different metaphysical and spiritual tools converge and interact magically to offer answers that all of us have access to. The Warrior and the Queen is an easy read that is best enjoyed with a cup of chai or mint tea in hand. "The journey of a warrior is not to find meaning in life or in battle but to find his true self." "Awaken, and once awake, awaken others." Readers have described the book as: "inspirational…takes you to the 4th dimension…poetic…avant-garde…an easy read…healing…intriguing…enlightening."
