Loving an Undercover Cherish Amore
When her first love is sent away for the rest of his life, Ariel Robinson is not sure she will ever love again. Jamrico was her first everything, and she's sure she will never love anyone the way she loved him. After a chance encounter with Titus Porter, Ariel is impressed by his muscular body and smooth conversation, but to her, Titus is nothing more than a way to pass the time. Determined to win Ariel over, Titus puts his all into their relationship, not willing to accept her dismissal. After finally deciding to give him a chance, Ariel falls hard for Titus, not believing that she could ever love anyone the way she did Jamrico. However, when she learns that Titus isn't whom he says he is, will their love be strong enough to prevail? When tested, will they come out on top? Or, will Ariel realize that loving Titus is a deadly game that she is not interested in playing?
