When they were in the bedroom, she was laid on satin sheets. Jade had almost forgot the feeling of satin against her skin. He slowly stripped her of the dress, and she didn't care. The room spun for a moment as a shiver of excitement ran through her. She couldn't help but to arch out and moan slightly as his lips met her soft, warm skin. He kissed his way down her neck as he slowly slid off her undergarments. Zane's sharp teeth nipped at her delicate flesh, making her groan as her eyes fluttered closed after meeting his dark black pools. He smirked against her skin.

"God, you're beautiful. Truly I'd think you were the otherworldly creature." He teased her, making her blush, biting her lip as she squirmed underneath him.

Jade didn't know when he removed his own clothing, but she didn't care. Need and desire were building up inside of her as she arched, wrapping her arms around him as her nails dug into his back. She opened her eyes to see him looking at her again as he lined himself up with her entrance, slowly pushing into her. All of his differences were forgotten as she was lost in the pleasure of being filled, arching up against him.

"Please…" The word left her lips before she could think. It didn't matter that he was an alien. All that mattered was how much she wanted him. As he moved inside of her, she could feel her pleasure building.
