When Love Comes to Call Carol Ritten Smith
Blind dates, do they ever work out? After a couple of dud dates, Karen is skeptical. But when she opens the front door to Richard, she feels an immediate attraction, and judging my Richard's mannerism it seems that attraction is mutual. Maybe her co-worker—and persistent matchmaker—has finally picked a winner? Sadly, just when things get serious, Karen learns that Richard is definitely not the man she fell in love with.

Try as he might, Richard can't convince Karen to explain why she suddenly detests him. But he refuses to lose the two most important people in his life. What will it take to win them back? Something none of them want and certainly not on Valentine's day.
