Patriarchy in Love

Rose Carrington

Patriarchy in Love Rose Carrington
Rose Carrington's Patriarchy in Love legitimises the benefits of a male-led relationship--i.e. a traditional relationship. Learn the necessity and prevalence of hierarchy, and how the implementation of one into your marriage can reduce conflict, increase your passion for each other, and create a stable home life beneficial to the whole family.

60 informational pages chock-full of:

- The alpha male and beta female stereotypes (The dominant man and submissive woman)

- (How to be the man. How to be the woman.) His-and-hers tutorials with over 150 traditional domestic-life ideas--essential reading for alpha males and barefoot-in-the-kitchen-kind-of women
- An introduction to pre-consent

- Guides on patriarchal sex (Sex concepts, the 5 most male-dominant sex positions, the 15 most alpha male places and situations to initiate sex, and the importance of lovemaking)
- A guide on communication (Speech patterns--how he should talk, and she, to maintain the man-over-woman hierarchy, and create harmony with each other and in the home)
- An overview of domestic discipline--mutually consensual punishments administered by the man to correct unwifely behaviour--with 12 punishment ideas
- Resolving common conflicts with examples given
- A word from the authoress

Whether you're married, unwed, or just a singleton curious about a relationship in which the man wears the pants (or the lady, a dress), Rose Carrington brings to the table refreshing perspectives on heterosexual love that you absolutely need to absorb and make apart of your life.

Excerpts:

From How to be the Woman:

41. Never talk back to him.
42. Ask him for advice whenever you can, and always take it seriously. Asking his advice lets him see that you are dependent on his intelligence.

44. Flatter him like he is a king.
...
85. Exchange loving and affectionate words with him.
88. Answer first to him then to your oldest son.

From How to be the Man:

27. Never harm her or your children physically or mentally.
28. Never let them harm you.
39.
Do not apologise for every little thing.40. If you feel overwhelmed, seek her help in situations in which you know she could help.
41. Never put pride or vanity before what is best for your family.
59.
Never swear in front of her, unless you're doing so to express that she has severely displeased you. Tell her not to swear when she swears.
60. Never abuse your wife's trust.

From How to talk to Her:

The
man, as the head of the house, is to exude his authority when appropriate, and be a "gentle giant" the rest of the time. He must know that his woman needs to hear tender, affectionate words as much as she needs to hear when she's let him down. He must know when to be surly, and when to be amiable. When he is happy, his voice should be open, loud, and full of laughter. When he is angry, his voice should be deep with warning, maybe even a spine-tingling whisper.
