Where Was God Hijacked? Violence & Human Rights in Islam, Judaism, & Christianity is a non-fiction account of how monotheistic religions throughout history have appropriated the concept of a perfect God to justify unethical actions. The book explores the religious justification for unethical actions performed by adherents of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, and examines unethical instructions within the sacred scriptures of these religions, particularly in the Old Testament, the Quran, and in the actions of Muhammad as recorded in the Hadith.
