Basic Catechism on the Alliance of the Two Hearts - A Practical Guide for Every Two Hearts Promoter (Revised Edition) Alliance of the Two Hearts
In 1990 a group of lay people and members of the clergy organized themselves to form a movement which would take upon itself the global promotion of the "Alliance of the Two Hearts," not only as a devotion but also as a way of life. Taking its name after the Holy Family of Nazareth, the Alliance of the Holy Family International has grown into a worldwide movement with members spanning the six continents. It works under the supervision of the Pontifical Council for the Family, bishop-chairmen for the clergy, youth, family, and mass media, and a number of bishop-advisers from Asia and Africa. Its mission is to restore and strengthen holiness, unity, and healing of brokenness, first in the home and second, in the four most influential sectors of society: the clergy, family, youth, and media. This booklet provides a brief orientation on the theology and practice of the Alliance of the Two Hearts.
