From author Jon Wasik comes the 2nd novel in the epic Sword of Dragons saga!

The four kingdoms of Edilas stand united for the first time in centuries! Six months have passed since the Sword of Dragons was uncovered, and the Allied armies stand together against the remaining orc army. As winter sets in, the Orc War Campaigns come to an end.

When the Wizards discover that they have lost the ability to create portals to the eastern continent, Cardin and his companions are dispatched to investigate. What they discover is an army of undead, and a prophecy that foretells a great cataclysm.

As the skies burn, and the dead rise to claim the world as their own, Cardin must find a way to save Halarite, or watch its ashes become the new dominion of the Necromancers.

"A shattered world shall return to its people;
Darkness and fire will descend."
