Color enthusiasts love coloring because it is fun and relaxing. You get to spend time with your coloring book to focus on nothing but choosing the colors and creating a lovely picture.

Some people like to copy the coloring pages in their coloring books so that the originals are untouched. We think that is fine, but the paper in our anti-stress coloring books is thicker than printer paper. The results that you get when you color directly in the coloring book is better than the results that you get when you color on printer paper. Coloring in your coloring book helps to keep the coloring pages organized too.

We recommend that you use colored pencils, fine tip markers, or gel pens to color your adult coloring pages. If you use markers or gel pens in your adult coloring book, you should put a blank piece of paper under the coloring page that you are working on. This prevents the ink from bleeding through to ruin the coloring page below. Our anti-stress coloring books are printed with only one picture per coloring page so that the ink does not ruin the picture on the backside of the coloring page.

Show your love by giving the gift of color with our Anti-Stress Coloring Book: I Love You Edition today!
