Imagine this: A longtime Spanish teacher moves in to the class next door. You peek into her room. Students are in teams. They're having a blast. They're working on a cooperative project, practicing real-world Spanish vocabulary and grammar. Amazed, you ask, "How did you get them to do that?" She smiles knowingly and asks, "Want my lesson plans? I have them sequenced into ten chapters with 80 step-by-step lessons. Blacklines too. They cover all the beginning grammar and vocabulary too: greetings, questions, alphabet, numbers, colors, shapes, occupations, time, days, months, seasons, the community, school, the body, the house, food, clothes, family, prepositions, verbs, adjectives and much more!"
