Raising a Rebel My Son His Son: Parenting a Teen is hard but parenting a Rebellious Teen is Frightening. This is the True Story of a Son Bent on Destruction ... and of a loving Father who chased him down. Susan Jill Ream
My son was only twelve years old when disturbing signs of deep rebellion began to peek out of his behavior. What followed turned out to be the worst nightmare of my lifetime. This story is a very personal account about my journey in raising my rebel son. In this account I will share struggles along with very important keys to making it through the chaos of rebellion. But for the Grace of God I would have given up in despair. God proved to be my everything and as the hound of Heaven, He chased my son down. The story goes something like this: Inexplicable Joy - Brutal Pain - A return to Joy. For those who feel lost as a parent, and to those who come behind me, I hold out a torch urging you to be brave and wait on God who will never let go of your kid.
